

NOTE: This bibliography has been compiled by Compatriot Paul Chase, a member in good standing of the Col. James Wood II Chapter. It is being shared here in the fraternal spirit to increase our collective knowledge on the Revolutionary War. It is not endorsed by the National Society, Sons of the American Revolution; The Virginia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution or any of their collective chapters.

TWO MAJOR SOURCES OF BIOGRAPHICAL MATERIAL ABOUT JAMES WOOD JR.

Quarles, Garland R. James Wood Jr., Some Worthy Lives – Winchester and Frederick County. Winchester-Frederick County Historical Society. 1988. Reader Comments: This one page mini-biography is one of many contained in this compendium of prominent American Revolutionary War patriots from the Winchester-Frederick County area.

Robertson, Dallas J., Ph.D., James Wood Jr., Biographical Sketches of Selected Revolutionary War Era Personalities from the Winchester Area. Winchester-Frederick County Historical Society. 1975. Reader Comments: This five page biography concisely and accurately shows the depth and breadth of Woods' contributions from his early Church duties, to his service as a the commander of 12th Virginia Continental Regiment under George Washington, followed by his service as the Quartermaster and then Commander of the Convention Army of 3,500 British and German Prisoners of War, culminating after the conclusion of the War as Governor of Virginia from 1796 to 1799.